COMPREHENSIVE WILL SERVICE -

We offer a comprehensive will service through our experienced and specialist UK will service partner.

WHY HAVING A WILL IS ESSENTIAL -

A will ensures that your estate and assets are distributed according to your wishes. Without a will, asset distribution may be left to the laws of the country where you pass away, potentially disregarding your preferences.

PROTECT YOUR FAMILY'S FUTURE -

A will allows you to designate legal guardians for your children and provide for your unmarried partner in the event of your passing.

YOU MAKE THE DECISIONS -

In cases of divorce, having a will empowers you to decide whether to include your former partner as a beneficiary.

WHY YOU SHOULD HAVE A WILL IN PLACE.

During your working life, you may reside in several different countries, each with its own laws regarding death and inheritance distribution.

If you are a UK citizen living abroad, not having a will at the time of your death may significantly impact on your final wishes, as the laws of your country of residency will apply.

Don't leave your estate to chance. A brief conversation with our specialist partner will help you with all your requirements and create a legally valid will.

SHARIAH WILLS IN THE UAE.

If you pass away in the UAE, Sharia Law applies unless you have a valid will in place.

Men and women are treated differently under Shariah Law.

If the wife dies, all her assets revert to her husband.

If the husband dies, then it's an entirely different situation.

Any bank accounts held in the individual's name, including joint accounts, would be frozen upon their death.

Vehicles registered under the individual's name are likely to be impounded until the courts determine the distribution of assets.
